The screenshot shows the Minecraft website homepage. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the Minecraft logo and links for Home, Game, Community, Store, Profile, and Help. On the right side of the navigation bar, there are links for Log in and Register. The main content area features a large video player on the left showing a Minecraft landscape. To the right of the video player, there is a character illustration of Steve with a pig and a sheep. Below the illustration, there is a prominent orange 'Get Minecraft' button, followed by the price '19.95 EUR'. Below the price, there is a link for 'Download it here' and a blue 'Learn about Realms' button. At the bottom of the page, there is a short description of the game and a note about cloud servers.

Minecraft is a game about breaking and placing blocks. At first, people built structures to protect against nocturnal monsters, but as the game grew players worked together to create wonderful, imaginative things.

It can also be about adventuring with friends or watching the sun rise over a blocky ocean. It's pretty. Brave players battle terrible things in The Nether, which is more scary than pretty. You can also visit a land of mushrooms if it sounds more like your cup of tea.
